Home 'Sweet Home' for Amherst girls swimming

The Amherst Central varsity girls swim team continued on the winning track Tuesday, Oct. 3 with a win 110-66 win at home against Iroquois, improving to 3-1 on the year.

Through an agreement with the Sweet Home School District, Amherst is swimming all "home" meets in the 8-lane pool at Sweet Home high school.

"Having this first class facility for home meets makes a tremendous difference in how we plan the lineup," said coach Ann Crittendon. "It makes those third to fifth place finishes more important in the scoring and allows us to get more girls some competitive experience."

Personal best times were turned in by Emilie Byrd in the 100 free, Emily Call (200 and 500 free), Jennifer Burke (100 back), Melissa Tschamler (200 IM and 100 free), Andrea Pratt (200 IM) and Michelle Niblock (200 IM).

"All the girls are showing improvement as the season progresses which gets us closer to our team goal of qualifying as many swimmers for the ECIC meet as possible," added coach Kim Skomra.

Strong performances were also recorded by Jordan Beamer, Allison Scaringi, Megan Dean and Betsy Winkler.

East girls swimming sets pool records

It was a record setting week for Williamsville East girls swimming.

In its 139-45 home win Oct. 3 over Lake Shore, Jennifer Anthon set a school record in the 200-yard individual medley with a time of 217.51, edging the old record of teammate Janelle Munroe, who swam a 218.37. Anthon followed up by breaking her own Williamsville South pool record last Friday in the 60 free with a 30.37. Her old record was 30.75. The Lady Flames won 62-39.

East also broke all South pool records in relay events they had set last year. The most impressive pool record set was a nine-second improvement in the 400 free relay (Bailey Woodling, Munroe, Tori Mayer and Anthon), finishing in 342.64. The 160 medley relay of Woodling, Kristen Ostanski, Munroe and Anthon finished in 130.35. Woodling, Kelsey Bradbury, Munroe, and Anthon joined forces to swim a 119.83 in the 160 free relay.

Mayer was a double winner against South, taking first in the 200 free (204.25) and 100 free (56.57). Ostanski and Crawford won the 100 breast (114.49) and 100 back (104.37), respectively.

"Up and down the line, all of our kids swam awesome times," said East coach Mike Doerfler.

Munroe won the 50 free (25.94) and 100 butterfly (101.24) against Lake Shore. Eighth grader Taylor Castle won diving with 157 points. Emilie Schachtner placed first in the 500 free in a personal best of 606.59.

East, 5-0, hosted Cheektowaga Tuesday but results were unavailable before The Bee went to press. They swim at 5 p.m. Friday at Pioneer.
