He isn't losing his wife to heart disease.
 He's finding dignity for his first love.

When Floyd was losing his wife to heart disease, calling Hospice helped him find hope. Hope that Hospice's Optimum Care team would help control her pain. That Hospice would pay for all prescription medications and equipment related to Grace's illness. And that social workers and counselors could help him and his wife cherish the good days — 'til death do they part.

HOSPICE BUFFALO
 Where hope lives.
