

Opera house to present 'The Odd Couple'

The Lancaster Opera House will present "The Odd Couple" at 7:30 p.m. Feb. 16, 17, 21, 22, 23 and 24. Performances will also be at 2:30 p.m. Sundays, Feb. 18 and 25. There will be a special 2 p.m. matinee Thursday, Feb. 22.

The Odd Couple is produced by Rocking Horse Productions and is directed by Leigha Eichhorn. The play focuses on Felix and his wife, who have just split. He is feeling despondent, so his best pal urges him to move in with him temporarily. The characters' personalities don't mix well, leaving the audience with comedic entertainment.

Tickets cost $16 for adults, $14 for students and senior citizens. For tickets and information, call 683-1776 Monday through Friday between 9:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. or order online at www.lancopera.org. For information on group sales, call 683-3032.

Women voters initiates immigration study

Immigration attorney Diane LaVallee will address the League of Women Voters of Buffalo/Niagara and guests at noon Friday, Feb. 16 at Scotch and Sirloin Restaurant, 6999 Maple Road, Amherst.

Last June, League members from across the county adopted "Immigration" — its history, its economic and social impact, and the laws pertaining to it — as a topic for study, with the intention of reaching consensus on guidelines to reform national policy.

This meeting represents the local chapter's kickoff of its two-year study, during which a committee will read, interview, and make firsthand observations, reporting its data and conclusions to the larger group.

Interested persons are invited to attend this public meeting. To make reservations for the luncheon, which will cost $13, call Clarine Radt at 633-7069.
