South continues early season success

The Williamsville South girls' cross country team continued its streak of impressive performances, along with steady improvement by the boys' team.

On Tuesday, Sept. 25, the Lady Billies ran to an 18-44 victory over Williamsville East. Sophomore Amanda Breyemeier won for the second time this season, mastering the difficult Bassett Park course in a time of 22:26, leading South to nine of the first 12 places of the race. Colleen Hurtubise (second), M.C. Aungst (fourth), Maxine Meyerhofer (fifth), Laura Johnston (sixth), Rachel Zucker (ninth), Santana Coon (11th), and Gretchen Szal (12th) also placed.

The South boys beat East for the first time in many years, 24-35, led by Dave Quinlan's second-place finish. The Billies placed seven runners in the top 10 - John Stark (third), Mike Herr (fifth), Leo Schultz (sixth), Bruce Hibler (eighth), Chris Bowers (ninth), and Jake Vogan (tenth).

On Saturday, the teams competed in the McQuaid Invitational at Genesee Valley State Park in Rochester. The highlight of the day was the sophomore girls' race which finished ninth out of 46 teams. Breyemeier once again led the way with a fifth place finish, the highest ever for a South girls in the race. Aungst (50th), Meyerhofer (83rd), Jenny Mooney (95th), Zucker (133rd), and Coon (181st) rounded out South's scoring. The team ran the upper class members in the unseeded varsity race. Hurtubise finished 181st, Johnston came 261st, and Lauren Mosier was 265th.

The boys finished 24th of 36 teams in the sophomore boys' race, led by the 96th place finish of Mike Herr. Hibler, Bowers, Vogan, and Rob Freeman finished the scoring for South. Quinlan and Stark finished 64th and 87th for the boys in the unseeded varsity race.

South raced Pioneer and Iroquois on Tuesday at Sprague Brook Park but results were unavailable before The Bee went to press. South will compete in the Town of Amherst Championship Friday at Sweet Home.

North boys open league play with win

Williamsville North's boys cross-country team opened its ECIC Division I season with a convincing 24-31 win over West Seneca West at Bassett Park last Wednesday.

Senior co-captain Geoff Hurley placed second in 17:23; senior co-captain Mike Thielman was third in 17:35. Junior Joe Seitz (fifth, 18:40), sophomore Ryan Perry (sixth, 18:44) and junior Steve Willert (eighth, 19:12) also posted good times.

Other outstanding performances included Pat Steadman (20:05), Rob Golightly (20:25), Tom Calandra (20:41), Matt Helm (22:18), Nate Chertack (22:53), Rich Rockwell (23:10), John Boser (23:15), Charles Jordan (23:32) and Don Seitz (23:39).

The same day, the North girls team lost to West Seneca West, the No. 1 ranked team in Western New York, 15-47.

Eighth-grader Rachel Dorogi placed sixth with an impressive time of 21:40 over the 5,000-meter (3.1) course, establishing a Spartan course record. Eighth-grader Sarah Loud also ran impressively in 22:30 for eighth. Natalie Worley (10th, 23:20), Kim Berus (11th, 23:27) and Michelle Bauman (12th, 24:01) also posted good times. Other fine performances came from Amy Loud (24:11), Kaila Raybuck (25:10), Dawn Hu (25:23), Jessica Leising (26:16), Stephanie Kranz (26:46) and Shelby Gray (28:17).

The North boys and girls teams also competed last Saturday at the McQuaid Invitational at Genesee Valley Park in Rochester.

The boys finished 16th out of 27 teams (409 points), beating Frontier, Jamestown, Orchard Park and Kenmore West in the large school unseeded race (3.0 miles). Hurley (22nd, 16:34), Thielman (32nd, 16:43), Joe Seitz (97th, 17:40), Perry (119th, 17:58) and Willert (165th, 18:58) also competed.

Other fine performances were Golightly (19:08), Steadman (19:05), Calandra (18:55), Carl Copeland (20:21), Chertack (20:46), Don Seitz (21:50), Rockwell (21:52), Helm (22:08), Boser (22:09) and Brad Weinstein (25:17).

The Spartan girls also ran well at McQuaid, led by Dorogi, who finished 115th in 21:41. Berus (118th, 21:43), Worley (164th, 22:21), Amy Loud (181st, 22:40) and Raybuck (245th, 23:53) also ran. Other good times came from Hu (24:03), Gray (24:49), Leising (25:14) and Kranz (26:10).

North ran against Frontier and Lancaster on Tuesday at Lancaster, but results were unavailable before The Bee went to press. North will compete along with Amherst, Sweet Home, Williamsville East and Williamsville South at the Town of Amherst Championships on Friday at Sweet Home. North has won overall team score between boys and girls and the boys race the past five years.

THE BEST — East Amherst's Mike Dobmeier (No. 789) won the open division race at Friday's Notre Dame Invitational in South Bend, Ind. Dobmeier, running for the Michigan Wolverines, covered the 8K course in a time of 25:13.
