

Penberthy's three points pushes Pee Wee Rangers over Flyers

Tyler Penberthy contributed two goals and an assist to lead the Rangers to a 5-1 victory over the hard-hitting Flyers.

Aiding the Ranger effort with goals were Jamie Spiller (second in as many games) Blake Michael (first of the year) and Trevor Brown.

Assists were earned by Michael, John Huyler, Nick Cuomo and goalie Michael Heyden, whose shutout bid was ruined by Mark Lesinski with under a minute left in the contest.

Adding excellent two way play were the Rangers' Noah Basehart, Greg Sibick and Justin Bystrak and the Flyers' AJ Aquilino, Joe Bengart, Craig McCabe and Matt Lesinski.

Bordonaro, Squirt Devils burn Red Wings, 3-1

Gianni Bordonaro started the Squirt Devils' scoring when he got a takeaway in the Red Wings' zone and took a quick shot.

Bordonaro then one-timed a goal on a wraparound pass from Frankie Bodami.

The Red Wings fought hard and had many scoring chances but could not get the puck past Devils' goalie Nick Molnar until late in the second period when the Red Wings' Tim Kreuz was awarded a penalty shot and scored.

The Devils' Alex Gervase finished the scoring on a rebound off a blistering shot from Johah Held.

Penguins outgun Stars, 7-6

The Squirt Penguins worked up a 3-0 lead over the first two periods before the Stars came roaring back with three of its own to tie it in the third.

Sarah Scholnick added two more for the Penguins to complete her first hat trick and Nick Tracy added another to go up 6-3.

The Stars wouldn't quit, adding three more to tie it at 6-6 with three tallies from Nick Peters and Richard Bruno to complete hat tricks.

With 20 seconds remaining, Tracy found the corner of the net to put the game out of reach for the Stars.

Mazurek, Neubert lead Pee Wee Black Sabres to victory

Brendan Mazurek and AJ Neubert netted two goals each as they led the Pee Wee Black Sabres to a 7-5 win over the Red Wings.

Derek Hafner, Jason Raimondi and Alex Touma chipped in single tallies for the Sabres. Raimondi's was of the highlight variety as he skated end-to-end and beat the goaltender with a nice shot. Hafner's was his first of the year while Touma also had two assists.

Matt Deeb had a nice defensive game with some solid checks.

James Kirkpatrick paced the Red Wings with two goals. Jake Alsessandra, Mitchell Kozlowski and Trevor Berninger added single tallies.

Penguins beat Devils, 8-4

The Pee Wee Penguins extinguished the Devils, 8-4, on Sunday.

One goal by Steven Zaprowski and two from Greg Wesolowski were scored by the Penguins in the first period.

The Devils' two goals came by courtesy of James Bassett and Matt Soos. In the second, the Penguins'

Joe Phillips and Wesolowski scored.

The Devils' Mitch Yoder tallied and had yet another chance on tying the game.

In the third, the Penguins put out the Devils flame and scored three goals, but the Devils ultimately didn't have enough steam to pull the train to a victory.

Teach's hat trick lifts Squirt Rangers to 7-2 win against Bruins

The Squirt Bruins pressured the Rangers from the outset.

Dominic Caruso (Cameron Czorza) opened the scoring 16 seconds into the first period.

Goaltenders Christopher Zenger (Rangers) and Sean

Brown (Bruins) took control. The Rangers' Adam Teach (Joe Tomczak) finally solved Brown to tie the game at 4:15 of the first. Teach scored his second a minute later followed a minute later by the Bruins' Peter Masters.

Christian Baran (Ryan Arrastia)

scored the only goal of the second. Teach finished off his hat trick in the third. Nick Bucello scored on an end-to-end rush. Baran added two to complete a hat trick.

Mirand directs Flyers over Penguins, 5-1

The Squirt Flyers beat the Penguins with another multiple-goal contribution by Matt Mirand.

Scoring once in the second and twice in the third, Mirand posted his third consecutive game with a hat trick. Hudson Milligan and Kyle Conover assisted on Mirand's second and third goals.

The Flyers' Andrew Mosher (Noah Bachwitz, Noah Rosenthal) scored, but not before Mirand netted his fourth from Max Marko and Brian Wiktorowski.

The Penguins' Sarah Scholnick (Austin Ballard, Max Tracy) scored.

Alex Streng played another strong game in net for the Flyers.

Flyer stars were Conover, Bachwitz, Rosenthal and Mirand. Marko got the game puck.

Squirt Flyers edge Sharks

The Squirt Flyers beat the Sharks, 2-1, in a tightly played game.

Andrew Mosher opened the scoring for the Flyers on an assist from Noah Bachwitz.

The Sharks' Connor Lalime tied the game.

Late in the third period, Matt Mirand got the go-ahead goal for the Flyers, who managed to hold on with strong goaltending from Alex Streng.

The Flyers' three stars were the entire team for a strong defensive effort, Brian Wiktorowski and Jacob Zurat. The game puck was awarded to Andrew Mosher for being in position each shift he was on the ice.

Stars play well, knock off White Sabres

The Squirt Stars played one of its best games of the season on Dec. 30, beating the White Sabres, 6-4.

The Stars led 3-0, but the Sabres scored twice in the second and two more at the end of the third.

Noah Reinhart scored his second of the season on a strong wrist shot from the top of the face-off circle.

Two goals by Richard Bruno and tallies from Nick Peters, George Korn and Austin Abbarno closed out the Stars' scoring.

The Sabres were led by Matthew Terrance and Benjamin Wald (two goals each), Andrew Meyer (two assists) and Brendan Condren (assist).

Mite Stars defeat recent opponents

The Mite Stars beat the Sharks, 5-4, in a wild ride on Sunday.

The Stars' Anthony DeMaria beat Sharks goalie Sam Pastore to start the scoring but the Sharks answered back with goals from Quinn Verpoten, Adam Higgins and Paul Arias.

Star goalie Ryan Gracie and Pastore kept the game scoreless in the second period.

The Stars opened up the scoring in the third period when DeMaria scored back-to-back goals. DeMaria scored his fourth goal assisted by Jacob Barberio. The Sharks' Higgins scored from Joe Marchese with 48 seconds remaining. With four seconds left, DeMaria scored the winning goal.

Stars 4, Penguins 3

The Stars opened the scoring when Cameron McMahon scored his first goal in the first period followed by his second goal a minute later. The Penguins' Allison Attea scored to end the first period.

The Penguins' Ryan Meade scored in the second followed by a goal by the Stars' Anthony DeMaria.

Liam Gallagher put the Penguins ahead in the third period, only to be answered by the Stars' Brayden Homberger.

Stars 3, Rangers 2

The Stars opened up the scoring when Courtney Cavarello scored her first goal, assisted by Matt Schrlau, followed by her second goal, assisted by Anthony DeMaria in the first period.

The Rangers answered back with two goals in the second period. DeMaria's goal in the third period clinched the win.

A solid effort was provided by the Stars' Jacob Barberio, Colin Branka, Joe Dispenza, Cam McMahon, Jack Ohle, Nick Signore, Brandon Zielinski, Dan Doyle, Ryan Frost, Theo Gogos, Ryan Gracie, Brayden Homberger, Gracie Marren and Deven Wistner.
