

Buffalo In-Line Hockey Group's winter season gets rolling

Nick Antoniadis is a 12-year-old playing for the Gladiators in the Buffalo In-line Hockey League Group Junior division.

Antoniadis, an Amherst native, accomplished a league first this past Saturday when he scored the first three goals of the game all within the first 1:29.

Antoniadis' play was the impetus that his team needed to post a 7-5 win over the Capitals and keep the Gladiators undefeated and in a tie for first in the division.

In other junior division action:

Sharks 6, Maroons 2

Adam Terragnolli's goal two minutes into the third period broke a 2-2 tie and gave the Sharks a win. Terragnolli completed his hat trick some seven minutes later.

Knights 7, Penguins 1

Kevin Krawczyk (Tonawanda) led the way offensively and Mike Vaccaro (Amherst) led defensively but the entire Knights team showed up for this one. Goal-tender Justin Smith played well in the victory.

Devils 10, Orangemen 6

The Devils stayed undefeated and in a tie for the top spot with an offensive outburst led by Vicram Goel and Ryan Owarczyck. Jacob Schrieber scored four times for the Orangemen.

Major division Killer Pandas 10, Vikings 8 shootout

The Pandas got nine goals from John Lyons and Christian Curtola, including two in the shootout, for the win. Chad Loughran had five goals for the Vikings and David Campuzano tallied two goals and four assists.

Blackhawks 7, Stealth 5

The Hawks got an early goal from Christian Knoell and took sole possession of first place with this win.

Justin Swan (Tonawanda) had five tallies for the winners.

Red Snappers 12, Snipers 3

Taylor Setlock and Scott Sciolino, both from Tonawanda, were the driving force in this game. They scored 11 of the 12 goals for the Snappers.

Warriors 8, Crush 4

The Warriors got goals from five different players and this team effort, along with Tyler Anderson (Tonawanda) in net, paved the way.

Firestorm 6, Mulecats 5

A Brad Owens (Tonawanda) hat trick and the netminding of Ron Carlsisle (Kenmore) were the story.

Buffalo In-line Hockey Group is the premier not-for-profit youth in-line hockey organization in Western New York playing out of the EPIC Center on Wehrle Dr. in Lancaster. For more information, call Rich at 689-4090 or 773-1188 or visit bihg.org.

North Buffalo defeats Depew

The North Buffalo Bantam Minor Bisons defeated the Depew Saints, 5-1, over the weekend.

Goalie Conner Naughton faced 17 shots for Buffalo as the offense peppered Depew with 33 of their own.

The Bisons got on the scoreboard first with a goal by Jordan Rusek (Eric Adolf).

Lucas Buscemi added a short-handed goal in the second.

The Saints tallied early in the third, but after that, it was all

Buffalo, as David Arthur (Buscemi, James Brand), Adolf (unassisted), and Buscemi (Josh Little) combined to put the game away.

The same two teams played last night but the result was unavailable.

Union girls post victories

Union College continued its winning ways with a 4-1 win on Jan. 25 over St. Lawrence.

Union's Emily Beauchamp (Rachel Farr) scored the first goal. St. Lawrence's Kathleen Ruggiero (Alex Colling) would tie the score 54 seconds later. Union's Sarah O'Brien (Emma Hubert) would take the lead.

Goalie Anna Quattro (Cornell filling in for St. Lawrence) and Union's Abbey Posner kept it close.

Emma Hubert (O'Brien) made it 3-1 in the third. Union's Brianna Stressinger (Beauchamp) scored her first of the season.

Union's Alicia Oswald played tough on the boards. St. Lawrence's Eleni Casseri and Erica Dombrowski played awesome.

Union 6, Burlington 1

The Canada-US Friendship Tournament started on Saturday with a 6-1 win from Union College over Burlington.

Union's Brianna Stressinger opened the scoring. Burlington's Jaclyn Chandler (Christine DaCosta) tied it in the second but Union's scoring would out do Burlington.

Union goals were scored by Sarah O'Brien (Becca Searns), Emily Keable, Emma Hubert (Alicia Oswald), Sarah O'Brien (second of the day), and Emily Beauchamp. Defense played extremely well.

Union goes to Burlington next weekend.

Micron Black Sabres edge White Sabres

A spectacular battle was waged between the Micron Black Sabres and White Sabres on Sunday, ending in a 4-3 win for the Black Sabres.

First on the board for the Black Sabres was Jacob Campanella, followed with goals by Mason Meggo, David O'Donoghue and Tommy Peers. Scoring for the White Sabres were Ed Militello and Chris Fiorella with two goals.

Excellent in goal for the Black Sabres was Sam Latorre. A fantastic effort in goal was also made by David Marotto for the White Sabres.

Mite Devils win by shutout

The annual Friendship Tournament was held on Saturday at the Pepsi Center.

The Mite Devils shut out the Burlington (Ontario) team, 8-0.

Led by goaltender Tyler Walsh's shutout, the Devils scored early and often in the convincing win.

Daniel Mosher notched a hat trick and an assist in the victory.

Also scoring were Bryce Baker, Cameron Treichel, Jake Conover, Timothy O'Connor, and Ryan Chambers.

Micheal Kaplan recorded an assist on Conover's goal.

Strong skating and passing was the theme as Greg Koutsomitis, Collin Mack, Matthew Shiring, Melanie Tunkey, Connor O'Brien, Spencer Neu, and Allison Carosi put forth outstanding efforts.

Squirt Flyers lose close one against Burlington

The Squirt Flyers lost a very close game in the final seconds of a hard fought contest against Burlington Your CFO.

Andrew Mosher started the scoring by crashing the net and putting in a rebound off of a Matt Mirand shot. Mirand later scored the Flyers' second goal on a breakaway.

Noah Rosenthal played strong in net in his debut performance, stopping many difficult shots.

Game stars went to Max Marko, Kyle Conover and Matthew Boccio. Mirand took the game puck for his strong performance.

Red Sabres down Blue Sabres, 7-4

Netminders Henri Tetrault (Red Sabres) and Jeffrey Cummins (Blue Sabres) squared off in a Red Sabres' victory.

The Red Sabres led a tight game early with a goal from Will Redding.

Michael Demarco broke things open with two goals on one shift. Redding answered with his second and Ryan Mitchell scored on a wrist shot. Adam Helfman scored to draw the Blue Sabres even.

The Red Sabres got going when Paul Cartone (Conner Baetzhold) and Redding completed his hat trick.

Blue Sabre Matthew Barrali scored but the Red Sabres pulled away on goals from Jacob Puckhaber and Cartone.

Gray beats Gold, 5-4

The Micron Gold Sabres drew first blood. Hudson Curtain scored the first of his three goals from Zach Esch (two).

Ethan Ruggiero scored late in the period. The Gold Sabres were anchored by goaltender Trevor Galante. The hustle award went to Trevor Kuntar and Nicholas Haas.

The Gray Sabres would not be denied. Alec Cicero scored a hat trick. Jarrett Lang and Ricky Pezzino also scored. Jordan Richheimer, DJ Reinard, Eric Karaszewski, AJ Ferenczy, and Adam Willig played inspired hockey. Michael Wolf and Elias Dunkle each had an assist.

Goalie Liam Wojciechowski stood on his head to ensure the victory.
