

Zack Palmerton of Stumpf's Gymnastics Center, center, won the Level 5 10-11 division in all-around at the Upstate meet in Rochester.

Stumpf's Gymnastics Level 5 7-9 division fared well at the Upstate meet in Rochester. Members of the team which placed are, pictured far left, Dylan Arena (fifth place), center, Nicholas Rey (first place), and far right, Griffin Ingerson (sixth place).

Trey Buscaglia of Stumpf's Level 4 division placed first in all-around with a score of 54.70 at the Upstate meet in Rochester. Buscaglia also won floor and high bar.

Palmerton, Rey place first at Upstate meet

Level 5 boys from Stumpf's Gymnastics Center earned top honors in the 10-11 division and 7-9 division at the Upstate meet in Rochester.

Zack Palmerton (10-11) won pommel horse and vault on his way to first place all-around.

Nicholas Rey (7-9) placed first on floor, pommel and vault to earn first place in all-around.

Also competing (7-9) were Dylan Arena (third on floor, rings, vault), Griffin Ingerson (fourth on pommel), Andrew Searns (eighth on rings and high bar), Austin Martin (second on vault), Brandon Colley (eighth on vault and parallel bars), Hunter Sullivan (fifth on floor) and Anthony Gallo (third on high bar).

Buscaglia tops the competition

Trey Buscaglia led the Stumpf's Gymnastics Center boys Level 4 team at the Upstate meet in Rochester.

Buscaglia placed first all-around with a score of 54.70, taking first on floor exercise and high bar. Josh Reinstein had a solid performance with a second-place finish on vault.

Also contributing was Robert Giancarlo (sixth on vault) and Zach Moser (first on vault).

Buffalo United boys' U14 takes first at tourney

The Buffalo United boys U14 "White" team took first-place honors in the Sahlen's Sports Park Friendlies Tournament held on Sunday.

BUSC won all three of its qualifier matches and went on to defeat the Rochester Football Club, 1-0, in the championship game.

In the first game against the Unionville, Ontario, club, BUSC went down early, 1-0, but goals by Alex Pollak, Dylan Krueger and Jonathan Vara (Amherst) helped Buffalo United to a 3-1 victory.

The second game was highlighted by Amherst's Liam Callahan's lone goal, in which he dribbled through the main body of AJAX's midfielders and defenders to put the ball into the net and come away with a 1-0 victory.

Next, BUSC defeated the Rochester Rhinos, 3-1, in which Dylan Krueger scored his second and third goals of the tournament. Kyle Herod added the third goal for BUSC.

The championship game against the Rhinos had Callahan again on the scoring chart by launching a perfect corner kick that was headed into the net by Mac Garner for the victory.

Buffalo United leaves for Philadelphia on Feb. 29 for the start of the 2008 Region 1 Premier Outdoor Spring Season.

SSPP eighth-graders fall to CCA, defeat MQA

The Saints Peter and Paul eighth grade girls blue varsity basketball squad (6-3) dropped a 33-22 game last Thursday to Christian Central Academy.

Marla Calbro (three points), Samantha Basile (five points), and Christina Seitz played strong at guard.

Claire Haumesser and Maury Fields each scored four points and had strong play at center with multiple rebounds.

Olivia Jakson (four points), Paige Hanley (two points), Michelle Haumesser, and Samantha Hathaway kept the CCA forwards on their toes with their own strong play.

Victoria Mendiola, Jessica Lynett, and Allyson Costanza gave excellent relief at guard while Kathleen Ruggiero and Hope Genco played strong at forward relief.

SSPP 34,

Mary Queen of Angels 13

The Knights jumped out to an early lead against MQA on Jan. 28 and never looked back. Leading the charge were forward Paige Hanley and guard Marla Calbro with eight points each.

Guards Jessica Lynett (six points), Samantha Basile (four points) and Allyson Costanza continually pressured the MQA ball carriers, causing multiple turnovers. Samantha Hathaway (four points), Michelle Haumesser (two points), and Hope Genco played solidly at forward and orchestrated several fast breaks. Claire Haumesser (two points) and Maury Fields dominated the offensive and defensive boards from the center position, limiting their opponents' rebounding.

Stumpf's Level 6 competes in Rochester

The boys Level 6 team (10-11 division) from Stumpf's Gymnastics Center competed at the Upstate meet in Rochester.

Earning second place in all-around was Stephen Frost, who placed first on vault and high bar. Mathew Salvati earned third place on pommel horse and fifth all-around.

Putting in solid performances were Josh Menegaux (sixth all-around, fourth on high bar) and Bram Houston (eighth all-around, second on high bar).

SSPP sixth-graders defeat St. Benedict's

The sixth-grade St. Peter and Paul girls basketball team continues its winning streak with another big win over St. Benedict's, 19-10.

The game was very competitive, and the girls from both teams showed their improved talent on the court.

Claire Rutowski and Serena Roche led the team in assists, and Caitlin Novak led the scoring with three baskets.

Kelsey Sommer and Susan Venditti dominated the boards, and Courtney Sutton and Cailyn Kreiger stepped up their defensive play. SPPP rebounding was dominated by Gabi Mancino and Catie

Colson. Great effort was shown by Katie McCabe and Janelle Migliori.

Youth swimming

Titans break three records at Senior IMX meet

The Town of Tonawanda Titans competed in the Niagara District Senior IMX meet Jan. 26-27 in Webster.

Thirty-three Titan swimmers took part in the two-day meet. Titans athletes achieved 57 lifetime best swims and set three new club records.

Abigail MacDonald inspired swimming "AA" times in the 100- and 200-yard backstroke and 200 individual medley. Kara Powalski swam enthralling swimming "AA" times in the 50 and 100 freestyle. Laura Savattieri dazzled by earning "A" times in the 100 and 200 breaststroke, 200 IM and 50 free.

Christina Ruggiero was captivating with "A" times in the 200 and 400 IM. Kearsten Renzi stripped over five seconds from her 200 IM to achieve a new personal best time.

Erin Rogers soared to a new personal best "A" level time in the 200 free. Nicole Malkowski pursued excellence, swimming a new personal best 50 free time as the leadoff in the women's 200 free relay. Kristin Berg demonstrated her strength with a new personal best time in the 50 back. Jenny Rogers took charge in her six individual events and two relays. Caitlin Schwinge sparkled in her four events.

For more information, visit www.tscswimming.com.

Revolution, Kenmore soccer play to 2-2 tie

The Amherst Revolution U-13 Girls Soccer Club and Kenmore Spirit played to a 2-2 tie Saturday evening at the Epic Center.

Kenmore took a 1-0 lead into halftime. Carissima Cutrona scored twice to give the Revolution the lead. A fortuitous bounce of the ball for the Spirit led to a breakaway score with less than a minute left.

A good game was played by Alyssa Cartwright, Sarah Eichhorn, Alicia Girard, Kaitlyn Neese, Colleen Stelley, Angela Sobatka. Cathryn Mahon, Gabby Bello, Kaitlin Walsh, Morgaine Houston, Dana Esposito and Meghan Keating, Nika Berrafato, Francesca Cara and Christine Murphy.

TORO Count on it.

GAS & ELECTRIC SNOW THROWERS

Ed Young's True Value

5641 Main St., Williamsville
www.EdYoungs.com

Sports brief

Meredith Parenti, 11, of Williamsville, and a member of the Holiday Valley Ski Race Team, placed fourth in the JIV division of the United States Ski Association sanctioned slalom race held at Peek N' Peak Resort on Jan. 6. Parenti also placed third in the USSA sanctioned giant slalom race held at Holiday Valley Resort on Jan. 13.