

Micron Gray Sabres shut out Black

The first round of the Micron playoffs continued with a game on March 1 between the Gray Sabres and the Black Sabres.

Alec Cicero had two goals and one assist and Liam Wojciechowski earned his second straight shutout to lead the Gray Sabres to a 5-0 win.

Black goalie Samuel Latorre had a great outing, keeping the score close most of the game.

AJ Ferency, Adam Willig and Eric Karaszewski each added a goal for the Gray Sabres in the winning effort.

Aidan Hillery and Alex Pronobis were strong for the Black Sabres.

Blue Sabres down Gold

The Blue Sabres advanced to the Micron semifinals with a 4-1 win over the Gold Sabres.

The Blue Sabres were led defensively by goalie Gunar Weppner. Defensemen Kevin McGraw and Ethan Beecher also played solid games.

The Blue Sabres were led on offense by Jeffrey Cummins' three goals, while Otto Bergmann added another with an assist from Timmy Jones.

Blue Sabres Patrick Brady and Mathew Barrali had strong games.

Trevor Galante (Trevor Kuntar) scored for the Gold.

Goalie Nicholas Haas stopped several breakaways.

Strong efforts were turned in by the Gold's Hudson Curtin, Jack Gilbert and Jackson Scinta.

Pee Wee Black Sabres, Red Wings, skate to 3-3 tie

The Black Sabres advanced to the semifinals of the Amherst Hockey Association Pee Wee playoffs as they tied the Red Wings, 3-3.

Jason Raimondi banged home a rebound from an AJ Neubert shot while Ryan Myers tipped in a Brendan Mazurek shot for a 2-0 Sabres' lead.

The Red Wings' James Kirkpatrick cut the Sabres lead in half on a nice three-way play with John Hannibal and Trevor Berninger.

The Sabres' Mazurek upped the lead to 3-1 on an end-to-end rush. Berninger cut the Red Wings' deficit to one before Antonio Zendano tied it with 48 seconds left.

Rangers' Heyden shuts out Penguins

Goaltender Michael Heyden registered his first career shutout in leading the Pee Wee Rangers to a 3-0 win on Saturday over the Penguins.

Tyler Penberthy figured in all the scoring, assisting on Nick Cuomo's second-period goal and notching two goals in the third.

Coaches John Kean, Gerald Browning and John Tomczak saw their team advance to the semifinals Thursday with a perfect 4-0 playoff record.

Solid contributions were made by Lucas Kindron, Blake Michael, Trevor Browning, John Huyler, Andrew Kean, Joseph Bennett, Noah Basehart, Jamie Spiller, John Tomczak, Greg Sibick, David Hnat, Connor Koester and Justin Bystrak.
