ProjecTruth's Creativity Contest winners named

ProjecTruth of Catholic Charities unveiled the winners of its fifth annual Abstinence Until Marriage Creativity Contest: "Waiting is easier because ..." at an awards reception held recently at The Fairdale Banquet Center in Williamsville.

The contest encourages students in seventh to 12th grades to creatively express their understanding of the benefits of remaining sexually abstinent until marriage and/or the consequences of high-risk behavior through art, essays, poems and/or music.

Amherst winners, all students at St. Gregory the Great School, were: first place in the poster category, Hannah Paterson of Williamsville; second place in the poster category, Maria Patnella of Getzville; first place in the poem category, Alyssa Aldridge of Clarence; and second place in the poem category, Alyssa Tzetzto of Williamsville.

Maria Patnella of Getzville stands next to her poster (lower), which won second in the ProjecTruth Creativity Contest's Middle School category. She was honored at a reception held April 25 at The Fairdale Banquet Center.

What's new in assistive technology?

Williamsville Special Education Parent Teacher Student Association is hosting a workshop about assistive technology at 7 p.m. Thursday, May 29, at the Williamsville School District offices, 105 Casey Road, East Amherst.

A variety of low- and high-tech tools enable students with special needs to access the curriculum. Learn about the innovations that address diverse learning needs. The presenters are Terry Friend and Dianne Rusek, who are the assistive technology team for the district. There will be information for all grade levels.

The program is free and open to the public. For more information, e-mail Marie Evans at septsaweb@gmail.com or call Dave Whalen at 565-9338.
