

Fastbreak Lacrosse offering youth, boys camps

Fastbreak Lacrosse Camp is offering a boys camp and youth camp in July.

The boys camp, for boys ages 8-18, will be held from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. July 20-25 at Sweet Home.

Campers are organized by age and ability for position work and in teams for competition. Every athlete, regardless of skill level, receives instruction and individualized attention from the staff.

Campers will walk away with authentic Fastbreak game shorts, dry-fit camp shirt, a Nike reversible game jersey, Nike posters, Nike lanyard and many free giveaways and raffles items.

To hold a spot at camp, Fastbreak is allowing each camper to pay with a $150 deposit. The balance is due during registration on July 20.

If you register with full payment or deposit before June 1, the total price is $275.

If you register with full payment or deposit on or after June 1, the total price is $295.

Two campers from the same family require a $300 deposit, $520 before June 1, or $540 on or after June 1. Three campers from the same family require a $450 deposit, $735 before June 1 or $750 on or after June 1.

If you are a returning Fastbreak Lacrosse camper and you sign up a new camper who has never been to Fastbreak before, you save $25 off the full price.

The youth camp, for boys and girls ages 4-7, will be held from 9 to 11 a.m. July 21-24 at Sweet Home High School, 1901 Sweet Home Road, Amherst.

Youth will learn the basic skills and play fun games and activities.

To hold a spot, Fastbreak is allowing each camper to pay a deposit of $35. The balance is due during registration on July 21.

If you register with full payment or deposit before June 1, the total price for camp is $75.

If you register with full payment or deposit on or after June 1, the total price for camp is $85.

Fastbreak is also a proud sponsor of the WNY Lacrosse for Kids Foundation, supporting lacrosse families in times of need.

To register or find more information on both camps, visit www.fastbreakwny.com, e-mail fbcamp@hotmail.com or call 636-1152.

St. Greg's varsity 'A' softball cruising at 6-0

St. Greg's varsity "A" softball team continues their quest for an undefeated season and a repeat as the Diocese of Buffalo's Northtowns League Champions.

The Cougars' ultimate goal is to earn a repeat spot in the diocesan semifinals in which they fell to St. John's of Kenmore, 2-1, last year.

The Cougars have shown no mercy to any of its opponents so far, winning all games this season by the mercy run rule. They've outscored their opponents, 94-16.

Their last four games included victories against St. John's, 20-2, St. Dominic's, 17-2, St. Amelia's, 19-9, and St. Christopher's, 12-2.

In the four games, starting pitcher Hannah O'Sullivan has struck out over 18 batters, scored 10 runs, had eight hits, and knocked in 12 RBIs.

Siohban Dwyer is the Cougars' closing pitcher and has struck out over 10 batters, scored 10 runs, had 10 hits, and knocked in seven RBIs.

Lisa Harb has 10 hits, including two home runs, one of which was a grand slam, scored nine runs, and knocked in 12 RBIs.

Emily Ludwig has 13 hits (two doubles, two triples), scored eight runs, and knocked in 13 RBIs.

Claire Mangano has eight hits, scored 13 runs and knocked in six RBIs.

Mary Kate Comer has seven hits, scored seven runs and six RBIs.

Lara MacDonald has two hits, scored four runs and two RBIs.

Kelly Farrell, outfielder Melissa Gleico, Maria Patnella, Maria Giangreco, Arianna Nasca and Alissa Vacanti have combined for 13 hits, 12 runs scored and 10 RBIs.

The Cougars have successfully stolen over 50 bases to date. There are four regular season games remaining (St. Amelia's, St. Andrew's—double header, and St. Christopher's) which the Cougars hope to continue playing their level of softball to maintain the undefeated season.

SSPP wins opener by shutout

SS. Peter & Paul's softball team opened its season in the Monsignor Bernardo Softball League with an 18-0 shutout over St. Mary's of Swormville.

Pitcher Michelle Haumesser started and recorded five strikeouts in three innings. Victoria Mendiola pitched the final two innings to hold the shutout.

Offensively, the team was led by Kathleen Ruggiero (scored four runs on four hits), Michelle Haumesser (three hits), Clare Costello (two doubles) and Claire Haumesser, Colleen Kenney, Alyse Bradley, Laura Galante and Victoria Mendiola (two hits each).
